

CURRICULUM VITAE

Maria-Pia Kothbauer, Princess of Liechtenstein

Married, one child.

1983	Master of Arts and Sciences, Political Sciences, Columbia University, New York
1984-1986	UN High Commission for Refugees, Geneva/ Switzerland and Khartum/ Sudan
1987-1988	Foreign Aid Department of Caritas, Vienna
since 1989	in the Diplomatic Service of the Principality of Liechtenstein
1990	Second Secretary at the Embassy of the Principality of Liechtenstein in Berne and Member of the Delegation of the Principality of Liechtenstein to the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe (CSCE)
1991-1993	Office for Foreign Affairs, Vaduz First Secretary at the Embassy of the Principality of Liechtenstein in Austria Member of the CSCE-Delegation of the Principality of Liechtenstein
1993-1996	Representative of the Principality of Liechtenstein in Brussels Ambassador to the European Union and to the Kingdom of Belgium
August 1996	Permanent Representative of the Principality of Liechtenstein in Vienna Ambassador and Head of Delegation to the Organization on Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE)
December 1997	Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Principality of Liechtenstein to Austria
July 2000	Permanent Representative of the Principality of Liechtenstein to the United Nations
April 2011	Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Principality of Liechtenstein to the Czech Republic, residing in Vienna, Austria
Other	Board Member Emeritus of the EastWest Institute, New York
Languages	German, French, English, Spanish (basic knowledge)